

DOGGY ADVENTURE PARK RULES

BEFORE YOU ARRIVE

Please read and take note of the terms and conditions.

VACCINATIONS

All dogs must be fully up to date with booster vaccinations (Canine distemper, flu, hepatitis, leptospirosis, parvovirus and kennel cough).

Any dogs newly vaccinated against kennel cough will not be permitted until the end of the vaccine's inertia period.

- Canigen & Nobivac 72 hours
- Bronchishield 144 hours (6 to 7 days)

All dogs must be up to date with flea, tick and worm treatment.

HEALTH

All dogs using the facility must be physically well as well as those it lives with.

PLEASE do not bring your dog(s) if they show signs of sickness, diarrhoea, coughing, lethargy etc.

If your dog(s) show any signs of illness during his/her off lead experience please pick up those signs (excrement/ Vomit) and remove your dog from the area immediately and inform a member of staff at once. This can be in person at the kennels office or by ringing the mobile number 07857545558.

BEHAVIOUR / LIABILITY

We ask all our clients and their dogs to respect other users of our field/adventure park. Any form of antisocial behaviour is not acceptable.

If your dog(s) proves to be antisocial, please remove him/her from the session immediately.

You are liable for any damage caused by your dog(s) to other dogs, customers, or equipment.

Dogs should not be left unattended at any time. You should always accompany your dog(s) such that you are aware of what they are doing and can ensure they are safe and are complying with these terms and conditions.

In accordance with the law regarding 'Responsible Dog Ownership' you are entirely responsible for yours and your dog(s) safety whilst on the premises. The law states that you should always be in control of your dog(s). This law still applies regardless of if you are alone, or a member of staff is present.

Humping, digging (except in the sand pits) or barking excessively is not acceptable.

Please use the litter bins provided. Do not leave any litter anywhere else.

Please respect our staff and other customers both human and canine.

WELFARE

We want every Canine and human customer to enjoy their off-lead experience here at Ash House.

Only legal Training collars and other aids are to be used.

Any form of rough handling or use of illegal training aids is unacceptable and will result in you being asked to leave our facility at once and will not be permitted to return.

DOGGY ADVENTURE PARK RULES

WHEN YOU ARRIVE

CAR PARK

Cars are left at the drivers own risk in the kennels car park.

This area is not secure for dogs; hence all dogs must be kept on the lead and under control until entering the holding enclosure leading into the adventure park.

GATES/HOLDING ENCLOSURE

Before entering the adventure park, a small secure area is in place, holding enclosure.

Please use this enclosure to contain and control your dog(s) before entering/departing our facility

Always close the gates behind you

Please do not enter until your allotted time has commenced and/ or the previous visitors have departed.

The gates must be kept closed at all times

DOG POO AND LITTER

Dog waste bins are situated around the field/car park areas.

Please pick up all excrement and put it in the waste bins provided.

Take your litter home or put it in the bins provided – Do not put litter into the poo bins

Please leave the field as you would wish to find it.

FOOD

Please do not bring any human food into the field.

If you wish to hire the field for a doggy birthday party, you will be required to ensure that anything you bring with you is removed before the next session is about to commence.

TREATS

You may bring treats for your own dog.

But please do not offer them to any other dog without seeking permission from their owner first.

DRINKING WATER

Fresh drinking water is provided for dogs within the adventure park.

Please feel free to bring your own bowls if you do not wish to use those provided.

TOYS

During private sessions please feel free to use as many toys as you wish to bring with you.

However, during social sessions please only bring toys if your dog is happy to share. Aggressive behaviour is unacceptable.

Our equipment is for use for dogs only. Please do not allow children on any of the play equipment.

CCTV is always in operation
