

Terms and conditions

On arrival owners must produce an up to date annual booster & Kennel cough vaccination certificate. Initial vaccinations must be administered four weeks prior to boarding, subsequent booster vaccinations must be administered a minimum of 14 days prior to boarding.

We require proof by signature with the dates of broad spectrum de-worming and external parasite/ flea and tick treatment given.

If on arrival the health of any dog is cause for concern, we reserve the right to refuse admission.

Any dog requiring veterinary attention, (in the opinion of kennel management) will be taken to your own vet, (if local) during opening hours. Out of hours or non-local clients will be treated by our local veterinary practise. Owners will be liable for all consultation, treatment and travel costs. Payment must be made in full before the dog can be released. Any dog requiring veterinary attention after 48 hours of leaving the kennels is not covered by our insurers.

If you believe your dog is due in season during her board, you must inform us. Please be aware that we will make every effort to protect your un-spayed bitch from unwanted male attention but cannot be held responsible for any accidents that may occur and may result in an unwanted pregnancy.

The food we provide is included in the price. If you prefer to bring your dog’s own food, you are welcome to do so. However, there will be no reduction in the fee.

All dogs must have a collar with identification tag, no choke chains please.

Dogs may share a kennel, only if from the same family, supported by written consent, accepting that they may need to be separated, sharing rate will then no longer apply

No dog will be released unless payment is received in full.

Fees are charged on a daily rate which includes the day of arrival and the day of departure. All prices include VAT.

We accept payment by credit/ debit card and cash.

Upon booking we require a 20% non-refundable deposit.

Any cancellation not notified within 48 hours of commencement of the booking will be liable to payment of 50% of the total booking value. Any customers failing to honour a booking without any notification will be liable for payment in full.

Any dog not collected within 5 days of departure date will be dealt with at the discretion of the management. The owners will be liable for all costs incurred.
